both sick but not exactly at the same time, so that was nice for taking care of each other.

VP Mary West sent me the 2018 schedule of events that were planned at the meeting and we are looking good with lots of fun things to do! The international meet plans are also on-track. Look for the international meet website to be updated shortly and registration forms and itinerary will be in the March edition of Turning Wheels. The swap meet committee is getting together this month at the site of the swap meet AND we will have Studebakers at both the Corvette/High Performance swap meet on Feb 11th and the Early Bird swap meet the following weekend at the Puyallup fairgrounds.

We have a special Valentine's Day luncheon planned on February 4th at Mrs. Turner's Plantation in Puyallup, you won't want to miss it! Maybe a visit to the antique shops in downtown Puyallup will be in order too.

See you then,

Laurel

Hello Studebaker lovers,

I missed the January meeting due to that awful flu bug going around. I caught it from Rick, so we were

INTERNATIONAL UPDATE

At this point I have nothing to report, but according to the president everything is on track at this point. (As was the Amtrak, until it wasn't). More volunteers are needed.

From time to time (not very often) we refer to our bylaws. Yes we have bylaws. And I am sure many of you have never seen them. Especially if you have joined in the last 20 years. They were last revised, approved and published back in 1998. For that reason I am going to send out a set with this newsletter. Yes they are dry reading and I doubt too many of you will bother reading them. And there are things in there that we do not strictly adhere to. So have fun reading them.

54th SDC International -Tacoma WA

Our January meeting was held at Mitzel's American Kitchen in Kent. There were 14 of us in attendance even though both our President, Laurel, and our Treasurer, Greta, were ill with the flu. We appreciate that they were not there. The food was good and the conversation lively at times. Ken-ny Durkee asked about how many drove Studebakers. His was the only Studebaker there. The main agenda item was planning for 2018. Our able VP, Mary West, headed up that portion of the meeting and she was able to fill most of the months with what looks like very interesting activities. The schedule of events appears elsewhere in this newsletter. (page 2) Mary expressed her appreciation for all the input.

Bob Bryant then gave us an update of plans for the 2018 International Meet to be held in Tacoma the last days of August and first days of September. As before, more help is needed to fill in some of the committees. Please contact Bob or Laurel if you can help and thank you to those that have already signed on.

Editor's notes

Membership renewals. As usual we have the same problem each year getting you to pay on time. Today we have 17 members who have renewed and about the same number who have not. Maybe my membership list is a little out of date and some of you on that list prefer not to remain members any more. According to our bylaws, dues are payable on the first day of January each calendar year. Furthermore; persons whose dues assessments are more than 60 days overdue shall be terminated. That means the deadline is March 2nd (March 1st for leap years). I will try to put together an updated membership list, but will wait until I am reasonably sure I have included everybody.

If you are not sure if you have paid, please send me an email or give me a call. stude21@juno.com, 425-747-9196

If you are an established member, I don't need a filled out form as long as your name is on the check.

The Olsen family built a fancy new house in town, and they were anxious to show it off to their friends. So, they sent out invitations for a party. On the party night, Mrs Olsen suddenly remembered they didn't have any toilet paper for the fancy indoor bathroom. She sent Mr. Olsen out to buy some, but no stores were open. So they settled on cutting up some of Mrs. Olsen's old dress patterns which were made of tissue paper.. The party was a success and afterward, two of the ladies were discussing how fancy everything was. "Yah" said Lena, "dey are so fancy dat dey got special toilet paper, some marked front and some marked back."
